Theft of a horse and wagon, and a race. - Information aving been received at the Police Office on Saturday, that a as looking man was endeavoring to sell a horse and wagon, far below their value, and that he had offered it at that are to the informant, Officer Stokely, with the latter, pre-ceeded in search of the man, who told so fine a story that he vas not molested. Soon after it was ascertained that he had disposed of the horse and wagon, had sent his trunk on board the steamboat Rochester by a carman, and was about bembark on board that boat for Albany, and Mr. Osborne. Clerk of the Police, with Justice Matsell, officer Stokely and where, proceeded to the foot of Courtlandt street, to find and arrest the stranger. In the interim he had encased himself in entirely new black clothing-and having mounted a sew pair of blue framed spectacles, had so changed the apince of his outer man, as to challenge recognition. Mr. Osborne, going on board the Rochester, saw the stranger in pertacles and eyed him closely-believing him to be adisguised picknocket or the hero of the wagon and horse— ad left the boat to find the officers. The stranger who had assobserved the scrutinizing look of Mr. Osborne followed im of the boat and through the gate-when the former, puz off some distance, his suspicion was fulled to sleep, mile returned on board the boat. There soon after Mr. arrived, and pointing out the stranger to Stokely, tat officer invited the great suspected to walk with him isto the Northern Hotel, where Justice Matsell was awaiting his There he was charged with the theft of the horse and wagon, which he vehemently denied-and offered to fur and ungon, which he extended the good character and task unexceptionable references of his good character and task unexceptionable references of his good character and LANNELLY COALS, 200 tons of these very superior tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, tooket, nating the officers to go with him for that purpose, to be a few tooket, nating the officers to go with him for the officers to go with him fo which was politely declined. The stranger, however tag outside of the door, started, and ran with the speed of a TINE LOCOMOTIVE . YANKEE CARD PRESS, er up the street, crying 'firebaw—while the Clerk, officers Stokely. Denniston and of Cards, at prices ranging from $1.75 per 1000 upwards. m29-4a Magnes were after him in full chase, crying. stop thief—

Old Sop thief, in which the crowd of spectators joined. The Old Special stranger was met in his course by masses that attempted to at off his retreat, but he broke through their ranks and stattered them, as if he were a Bonaparte, until turning and rossing up Dev street, when near Greenwich, a party of genmen flung themselves into an impenerrable body before and he was intercepted and handed over to the officers who inducted from to the Police Office. There he gave the name of Martin Jamison, said he had hired the horse of Mr. Fin, at Somerville. New Jersey, to come hither and was to return it on Saturday night.

He stated that he had sold the horse for $45 and the wa-200 for $20, which were recovered, and Mr. Jamison was diested of the $30 or $40 in his pocket-book, and sent to False Pretence.- A stout colored man named Samuel Masereau was arrested on Saturday by Officer Sheran, charged with having obtained $15 from David Higgins, a colored shipper of seamen, of No. 75 South-street, on the 9th inst. under false pretences. Mr. Higgins stated that the prisoner came to him and entered as a sailor a huge black fellow named Sidney Cheever, and Jemanded $15 advance pay, saying that he had the effects of Cheever in his posses worth three times the amount of the advance and pledging himself to deliver Cheever and his effects on bond the ve-sel at the time appointed. Neither came, and Higgins seeing Mersereau, the latter admitted to him that help to the control of the control. The warhe had never had Cheever's effects in his custody. Tail was thereupon sued out, and Mersereau, who has figured in this and similar ways, was sent to prison.

Arrest of Disorderlies and Frailties.—On Sunday more ist about 3 o'clock, Alderman Williams and Officer B. F. Parker, of the 4th Ward, arrested nine of the frail and indeveat females of that Ward, who had indulged in sundry acts of disorderly conduct and indecency, that rendered the to be at large. They were lodged in the watch-house. and som after brought before the Police Magistrate, and on Proof sent to the Penitentiary for 3 months each as vagrants. In the 5th Ward, also, Assistant Alderman Adams, aided by Jastice Matsell, arrested four of the most indecent and disorderly females, who were performing their incantations the public streets, and looged them in the watch hou Yestenlay they also were sent to the Penitentiary for 3

Arrest and Escape. - Officer Durando on Saturday night Arested Andrew Donovan and lodged him in herse for stealing shoes. In the morning in the Police Of-See, when John Donevan was called for, he was non est intenna, having escaped by giving leg bail—the best that could be obtained under the circumstances of the case.

CORONER'S OFFICE .- On Friday night the Coroner held an inquest at No. 49 Orange street on the body of John Gil-ligan, laborer, aged 44, a native of Ireland, who there resi-ded with his little daughter and suddenly died that evening. He was able to work on Thursday, returned at night unwell and was confined to his bed on Friday-and in the afternoon late, his little daughter, who was the only person living with him, went out to get some milk for her father; when she re-turned she found him discharging some very offensive substance from his stomach, and almost in an expiring state.-She ran for a neighboring female who came, and when they | Pt arrived the man was dead. Dr. F. Hasbrouck executed a post mortem examination and discovered effusion on the Verdict-died of dropsy of the chest.

The Coroner also on Saturday held an inquest at the corner of Charlton and West streets, on the body of William Lloyd aged 54, a native of England, a cooper by trade and a man of rather intemperate habits. The deceased left his work about noon of Friday—was seen on that evening between 6 and 7 o'clock, at the foot of Charlton street, at a Porter house, considerably inchriated, and was found on Saturday at the in the dock, at the foot of the same street. Verdict, found drawned.

Also, on Saturday evening, at the house of Mrs. Catharine Doherty, No. 43 Malberry street on the body of Mary Mahan, a native of Ireland, age unknown, who bired apartments there a few days before apparently unwell and coughing and expectorating considerably. On Saturday, Mrs. Doherty went out for a few moments, on some business Superior Court Calender for June 21-Nos. 47, 61 leaving deceased sitting smoking her pipe in the room of 62, 50, 20, 16, 60, 43, 69, 70, 74, 75, 76, 77, 107, 103, 27, Mrs. D. When the latter returned, she found the deceased 1, 49, 44, 59.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS CALENDER for June 21-First of the disease of the lungs.

Also, yesterday, at the late residence of the deceased, No. Second part 2, 6, 106, 12, 16, 32, 94, 36, 33, 40, 42, 44, 8 Marion street, on the body of Edward Hall, a native of Engla. I, aged 42, a merchant tailor. The decreased was ill on Saturday, of a tumefaction of the throat, accompanied with great pain. He sent for Dr. Powers, who prescribed leeching, and Josiah Hall, nephew of deceased, of Brooklyn, who was sent for, came and applied the leeches, but without any salutary effect. Before the second visit of the Doctor, yesterday morning, the man had died. Dr. Powers executed a post mortem examination of the body of deceased, and discovered that there was a slight inflammation of the traches -acute inflammation of the oesophagus-considerable inflamation of the stomach, the glands of the throat enlarged, and morbid appearances of the parts sufficient to cause death.

Verdict of the Jury, that the patient died of inflammation and swelling of the throat.
